4. In order to carry out its responsibilities, The Audit Committee shall have the right to request business report from the Company's subsidiaries. If the subsidiary receiving such request does not promptly produce a report or if it is necessary to further confirm the contents of such report, The Audit Committee shall have the right to inspect the subsidiary's business and financial condition.
5. The Audit Committee shall take care of matters other than those prescribed under Paragraphs 1 to 4 as delegated by the Board of Directors.
6. The Audit Committee may request to convene a Board of Director's meeting with a written notice given to Directors. The notice shall state the agenda of the meeting and the time and place of the meeting.
7. The Audit Committee shall apply to the authority to convene a Board of Director's meeting immediately unless a Board of Director's meeting is convened as requested under the provision of Paragraph 6.

Article 50. Minutes of The Audit Committee

1. The substance of the course of the proceedings, and the results of the audit shall be recorded in the minutes.
2. The Audit Report shall bear the results with names and seal impression or signature of The Audit Committee members who conducted the audit.

CHAPTER VII. ACCOUNTING

Article 51. Fiscal Year

The fiscal year of the Company shall begin on January 1 and end on December 31 of each year.

Article 52. Preparation and Maintenance of Financial Statements and Business Report

1. The Representative Director of the Company shall prepare the documents specified in Article 447 and Article 447-2 of the Commercial Act and have them approved by the Board of Directors.
2. The Representative Director shall have the documents mentioned in Paragraph 1 audited by The Audit Committee no later than six (6) weeks before the date set for the ordinary shareholders' meeting.
3. The Audit Committee shall submit an audit report to the Representative Director one (1) week prior to the ordinary shareholders' meeting.
4. The Representative Director shall keep the documents enumerated in Paragraph 1 above and the audit report at the headquarter of the Company for five (5) years from one (1) week prior to the date of the ordinary shareholders' meeting and the copies thereof at the branch offices for three (3) years.
5. The Representative Director shall submit the document specified in Article 447 of the Commercial

Act at the ordinary shareholders' meeting and obtain approval of the shareholders. The documents specified in Article of 447-2 of the Commercial Act shall also be reported to the ordinary shareholders' meeting.

6. Notwithstanding Paragraph 5, the Company shall have the documents specified in Article 447 of the Commercial Act approved by the Board of Directors, provided that the external auditors' report confirms the Company's business and financial condition and approval of The Audit Committee.
7. The Representative Director must notify the Company's balance sheet and submit the external auditors' report immediately after obtaining approval in accordance with Paragraph 5.

Article 53. Appointment of External Auditors

With respect to appointing external auditors, the Company's Audit Committee shall appoint external auditors pursuant to the provisions of the Act on External Audit of Stock Companies, and shall report such to the first ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders to be convened after such appointment, or notify such information to the shareholders by delivering written notification or posting on the Company's website.

Article 54. Disposition of Profits

1. The Company shall dispose of inappropriate retained earnings as of the end of each fiscal year as follows:
 - (1) legal reserves;
 - (2) other statutory reserves;
 - (3) dividends;
 - (4) voluntary reserves; and
 - (5) other appropriation of earned surplus.

Article 55. Payment of Dividends

1. The Company may distribute dividends in cash or shares.
2. In case of distribution of dividends in shares, if the Company has issued several classes of shares, the dividend distribution may be made in shares of different classes by a resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders.
3. Dividends under Paragraph 1 shall be paid to shareholders and registered pledgees whose names appear in the Registry of Shareholders as of the last day of each fiscal year.
4. Payment of dividends shall be distributed upon the resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders. However, dividends shall be distributed under Article 52 Paragraph 6 provided that the financial statements are approved by the Board of Directors.

Article 56. Interim Dividends

1. The Company may declare interim dividends to the current shareholders as of end of March, June, and September from the commencement of the business year pursuant to Article 165-12 of the FISCM upon the resolution of the Board of Directors. The quarterly dividends shall be paid in cash.
2. The resolution under Paragraph 1 above shall be made within 45 days of the record date stipulated in Paragraph 1.

3. The maximum amount to be paid as interim dividends shall be calculated by deducting the following amounts from the net asset amounts recorded in the balance sheet of the fiscal year immediately prior to the fiscal year concerned:
 - (1) The amount of the paid-in capital of the preceding business year;
 - (2) Sum of the capital surplus reserve and earned surplus reserve that have been accumulated until the preceding business year;
 - (3) The amount declared to be distributed or paid from profits by the ordinary shareholders' meeting of the preceding business year;
 - (4) Voluntary reserve fund accumulated until the preceding business year for the special purposes in accordance with the provisions of the Articles of Incorporation or by the resolution of the shareholders' meeting;
 - (5) Unrealized gains determined under Article 19 of the Commercial Act;
 - (6) Earned surplus reserve to be reserved for the current business year as a result of the interim dividends payment; and
 - (7) Sum of the interim dividends paid for the current business year
4. If the new shares (including those issued as a result of conversion of the reserves to equity, stock dividend, claim for conversion of the convertible bonds, and exercise of warrants for bonds with warrants) have been issued after the commencement of a business year and prior to the date set forth in Paragraph 1, such new shares shall be deemed to have been issued at the end of the preceding business year for the purpose of interim dividends. However, new shares that were issued after the payment of interim dividends shall be deemed to have been issued immediately after the base date of the interim dividends.
5. With respect to interim dividends, the same dividend rate as that of common shares shall also apply to Non-common shares under Article 10 hereof.

Article 57. Statute of Limitation for the Right to Dividend Payment

1. The right to dividend payment shall expire by prescription unless it is exercised within five (5) years.
2. Dividends to which a claim has expired pursuant to Paragraph 1 shall revert to the Company.

Addendum

These Articles shall be effective from March 19, 2021.
